JOE BECOMES A MOST SPECIAL AQUANAUT!

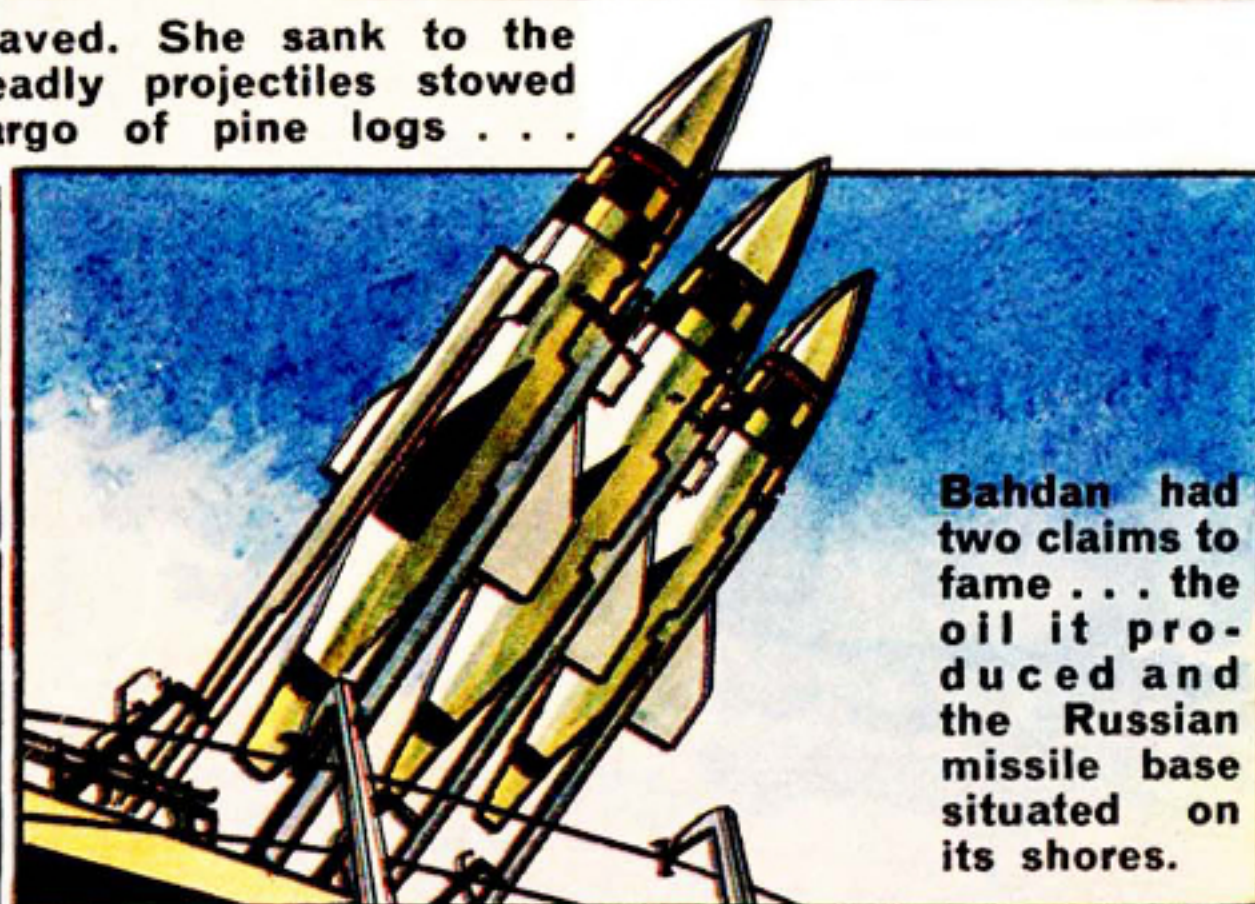

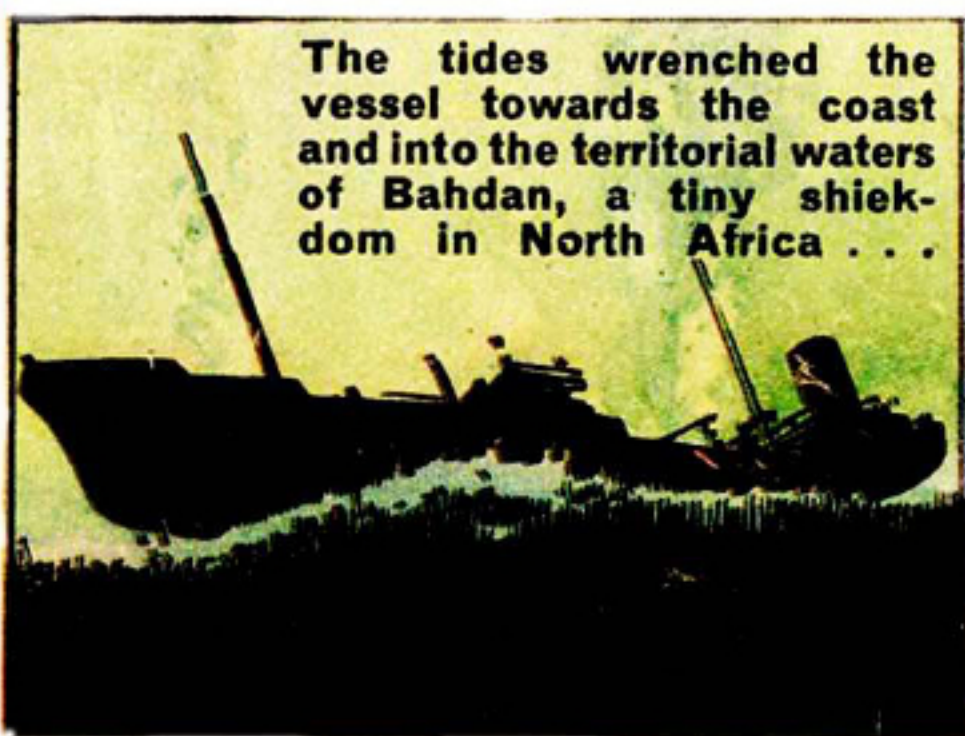

Collision Disaster

Gun and ammunition running is a serious crime ... but when the peace of the world is at stake then the crime becomes a disaster. The merchant vessel S.S. Wroxham out of Hull, England, was carrying an illicit cargo of twelve ground-to-air missiles when she collided with a Lebanese tanker in the Mediterranean ...

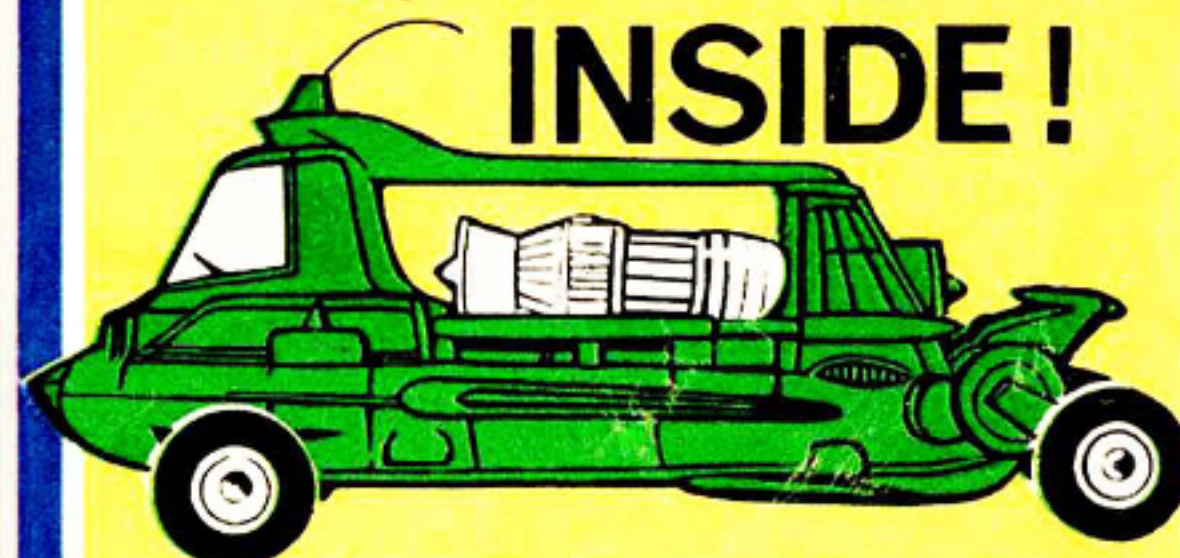

The ship could not be saved. She sank to the murky depths with the deadly projectiles stowed amongst the registered cargo of pine logs ...

The tides wrenched the vessel towards the coast and into the territorial waters of Bahdan, a tiny shiekdom in North Africa ...

Bahdan had two claims to fame ... the oil it produced and the Russian missile base situated on its shores.

The BIG RAT Invented by Mac, this computer is capable of feeding the recorded brain-patterns of experts into Joe 90, when he is sitting in the cage-like RAT TRAP.

AS I TOLD YOU ON THE PHONE, MAC, THIS IS A JOB FOR JOE 90.

IN THE OLD TUDOR COTTAGE, JOE McCLAINES IS TOLD THE SERIOUSNESS OF THE SITUATION...

JOE WON'T AROUSE SUSPICION... AND WITH YOUR HELP, MAC, IT WILL BE AS SAFE AS HOUSES.

ALL RIGHT, SAM, BUT WE'LL HAVE TO FEED JOE THE CORRECT BRAIN PATTERN...

BENEATH THE COTTAGE IS PROFESSOR McCLAINES SECRET LABORATORY...

AND JOE IS SOON INDUCED WITH THE BRAIN PATTERNS OF COMMANDER SAMPSON, CHIEF NAVY AQUANAUT.

PUTTING ON HIS SPECIAL ELECTRODE GLASSES, THE SCHOOL BOY BECOMES JOE 90 - MOST SPECIAL AGENT...

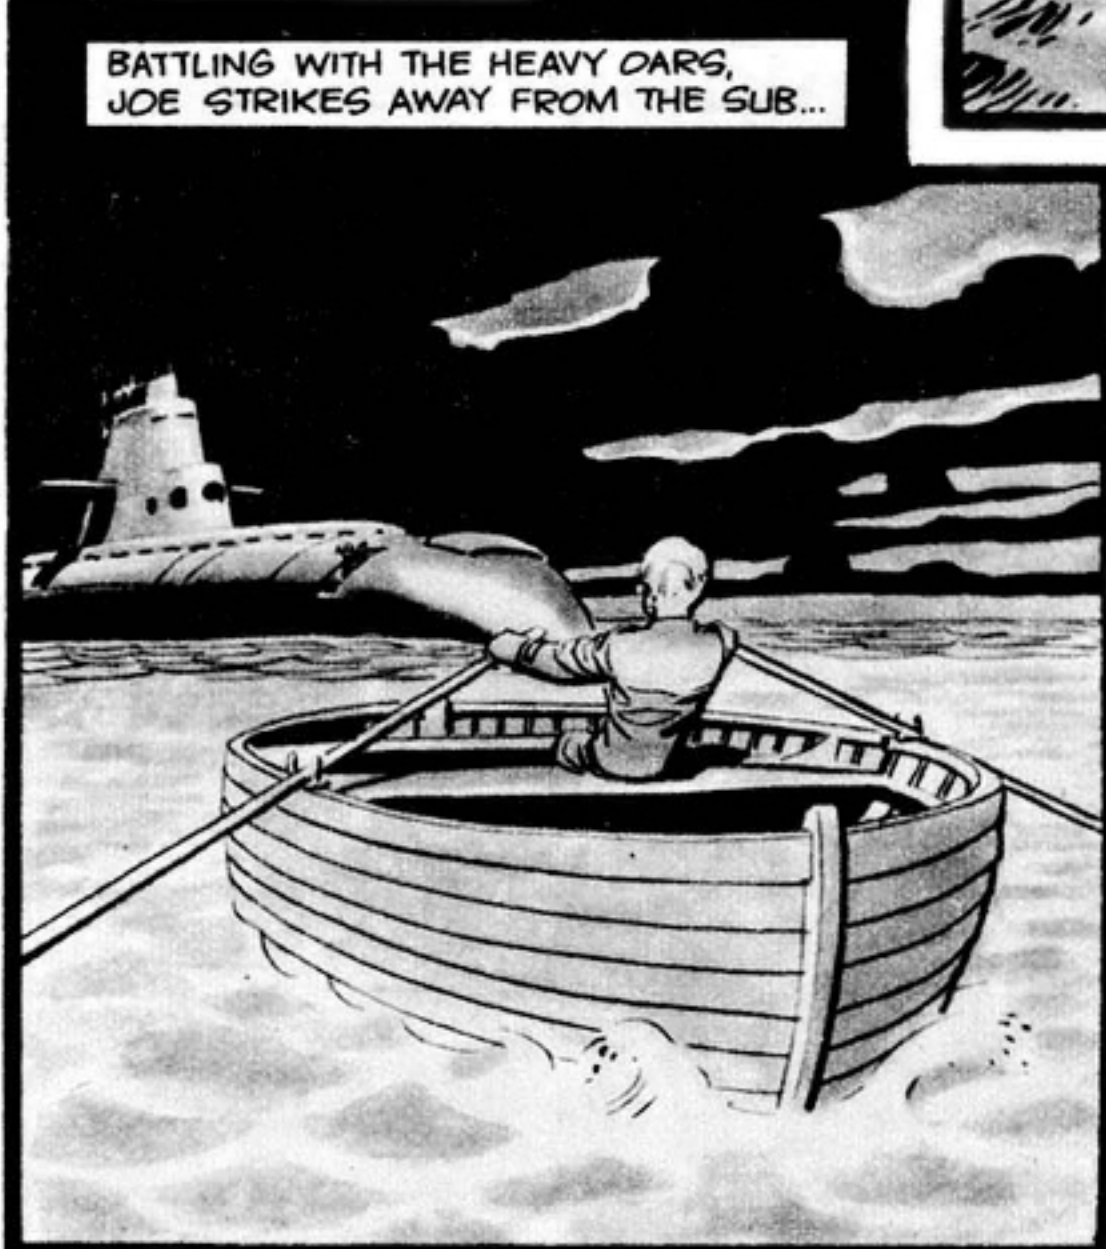

TO DO THIS JOB, I'LL NEED A SUBMARINE AND A DINGHY...

THAT NIGHT, A W.I.N. SUBMARINE SURFACES JUST OUTSIDE THE BAH DAN TERRITORIAL LIMIT...

BE CAREFUL, JOE...

OKAY, MAC... STAY AROUND WILL YOU... I MIGHT NEED HELP.

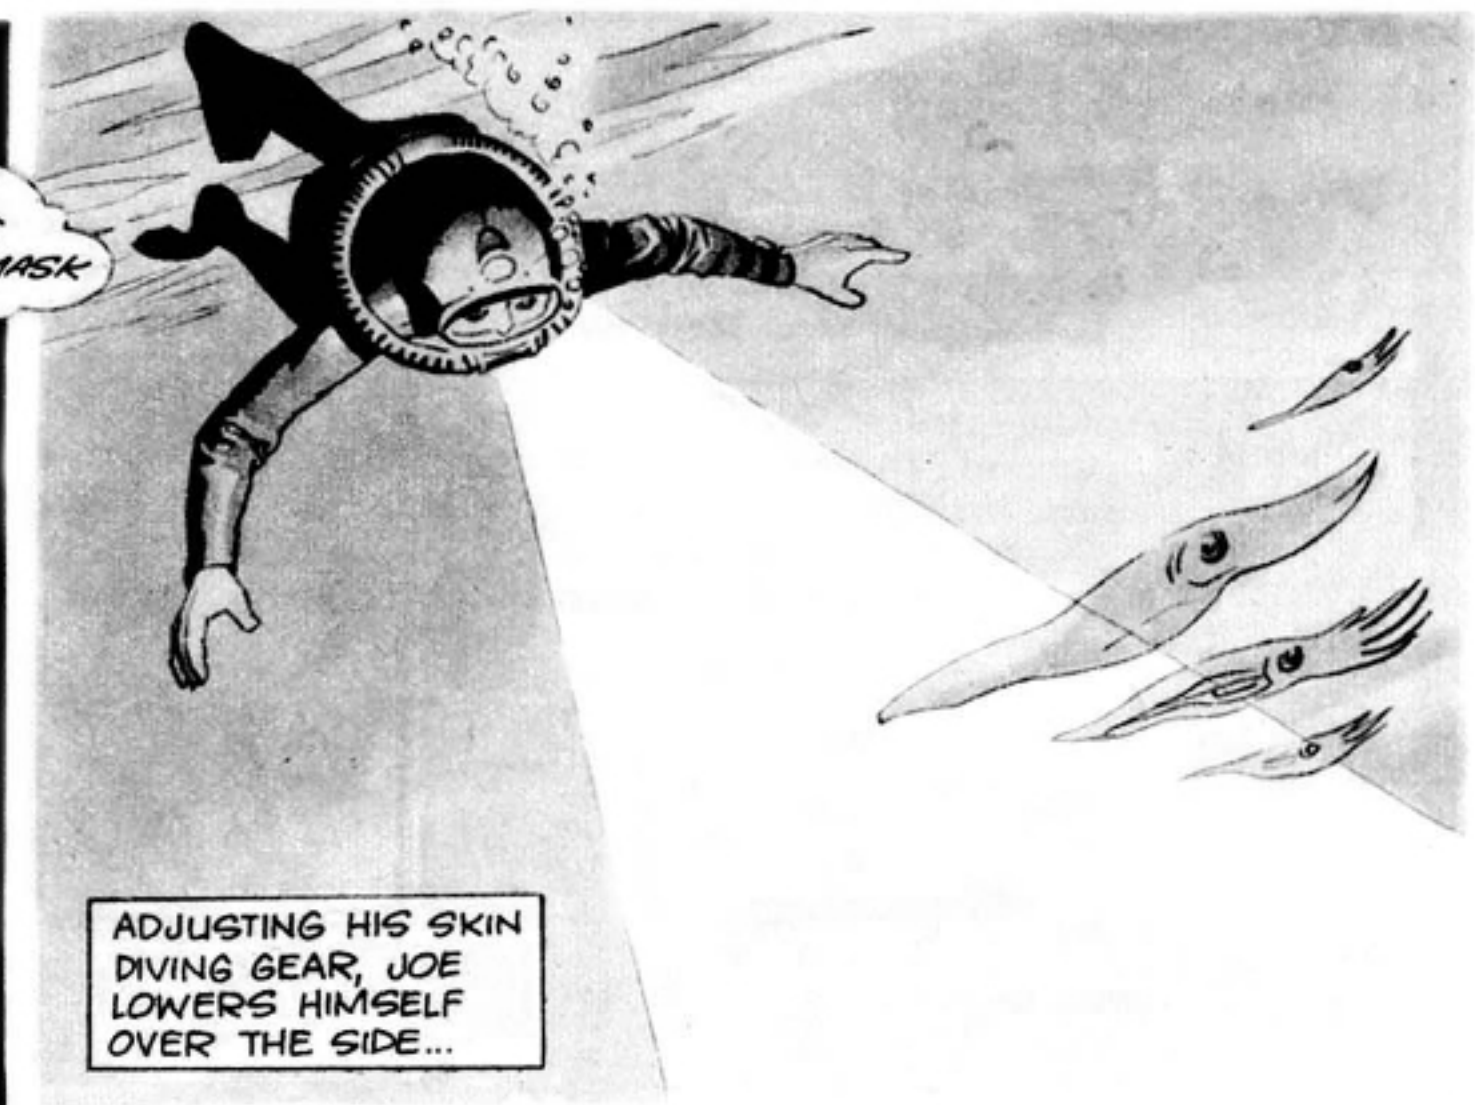

BATTLING WITH THE HEAVY OARS, JOE STRIKES AWAY FROM THE SUB...

AN HOUR LATER, HE IS OVER THE SPOT WHERE THE WROXHAM WENT DOWN...

I HOPE THE ELECTRODES IN THE FACE MASK WORK...

ADJUSTING HIS SKIN DIVING GEAR, JOE LOWERS HIMSELF OVER THE SIDE...

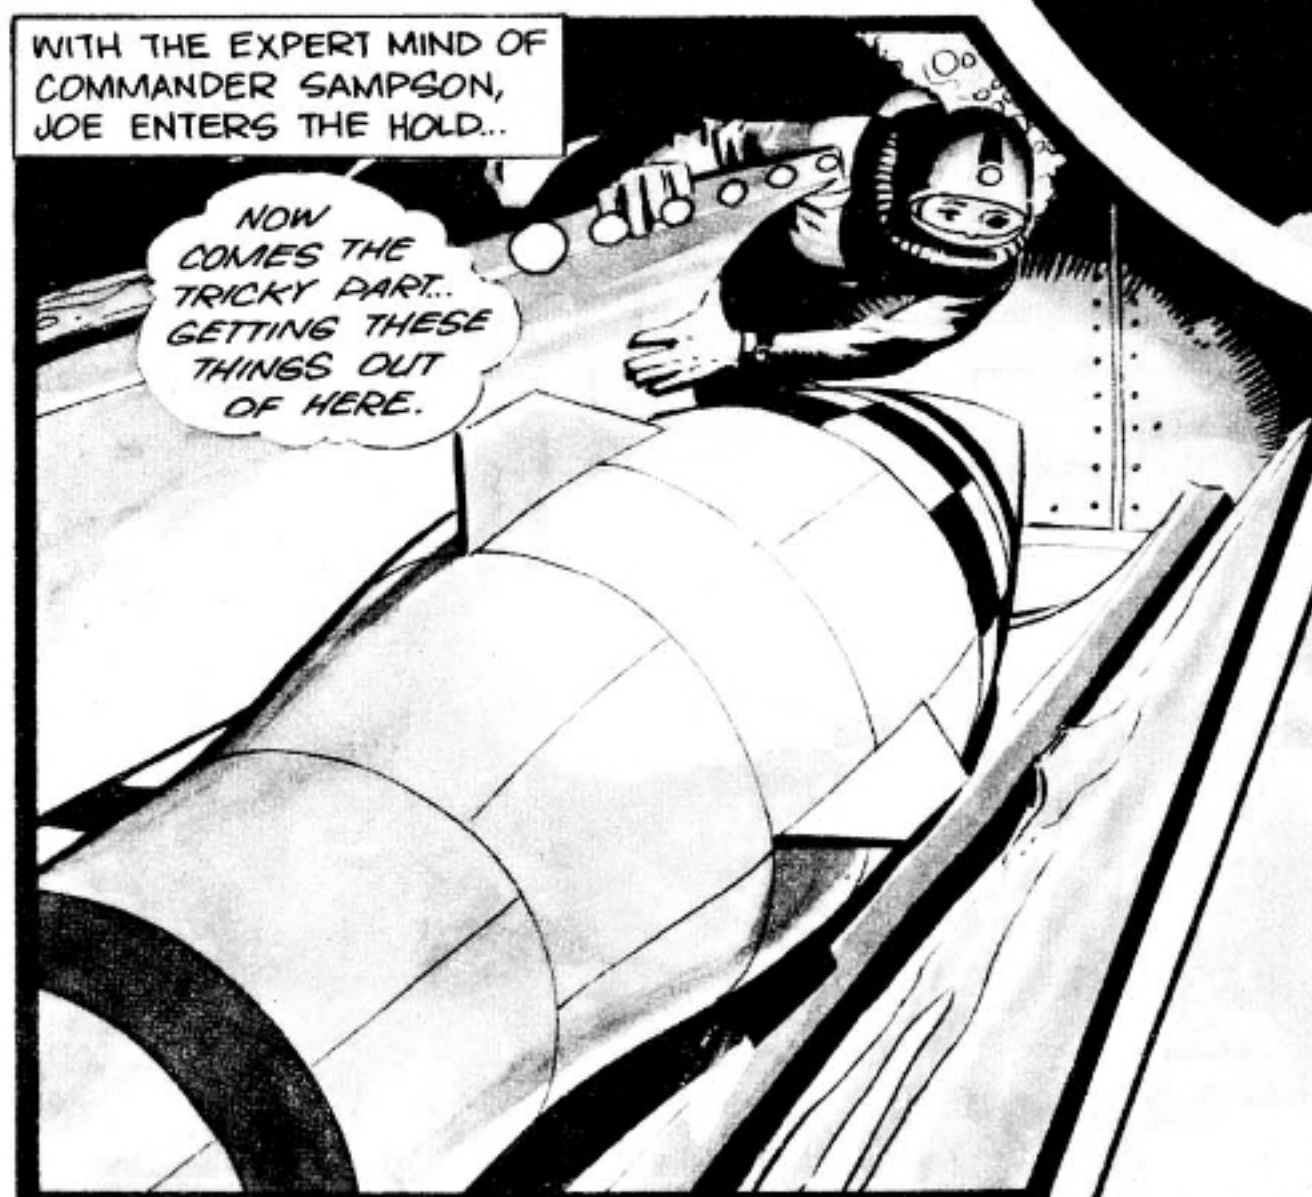

PROF. MAC Creator of the BIG RAT, he is a computer and electronics expert. He is a great friend of Sam Loover, who introduced him to W.I.N.

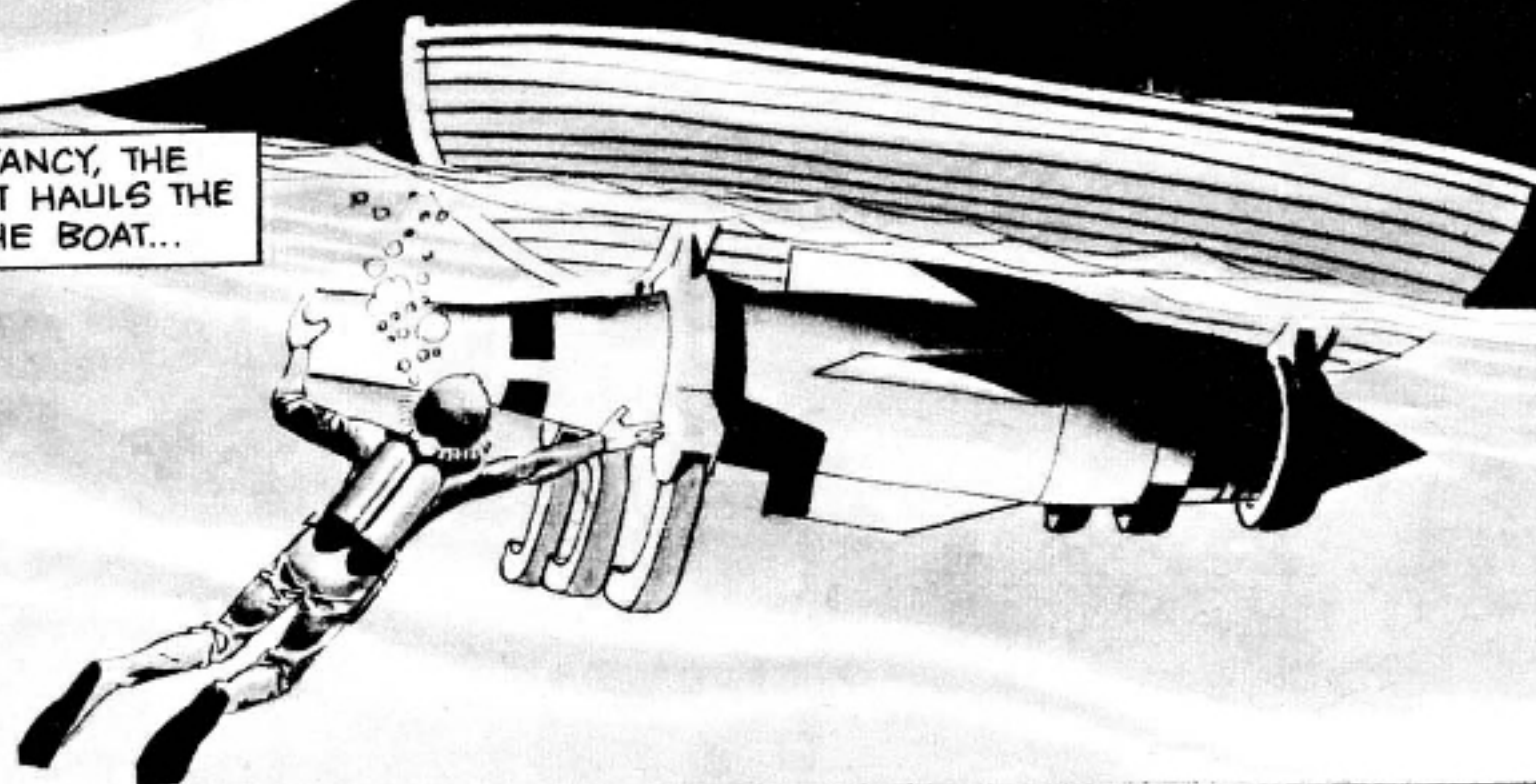

The COTTAGE Dorset, home of Joe and Mac. With furniture and decor of an antique design, it masks the underground laboratory which is reached by a hidden elevator.

UNCLE SAM Deputy Head of W.I.N., London, he was once an active top agent himself. Now he acts as adviser and go-between for Joe 90 and W.I.N.

HELPED BY THE BUOYANCY, THE MOST SPECIAL AGENT HAULS THE FIRST MISSILE TO THE BOAT...

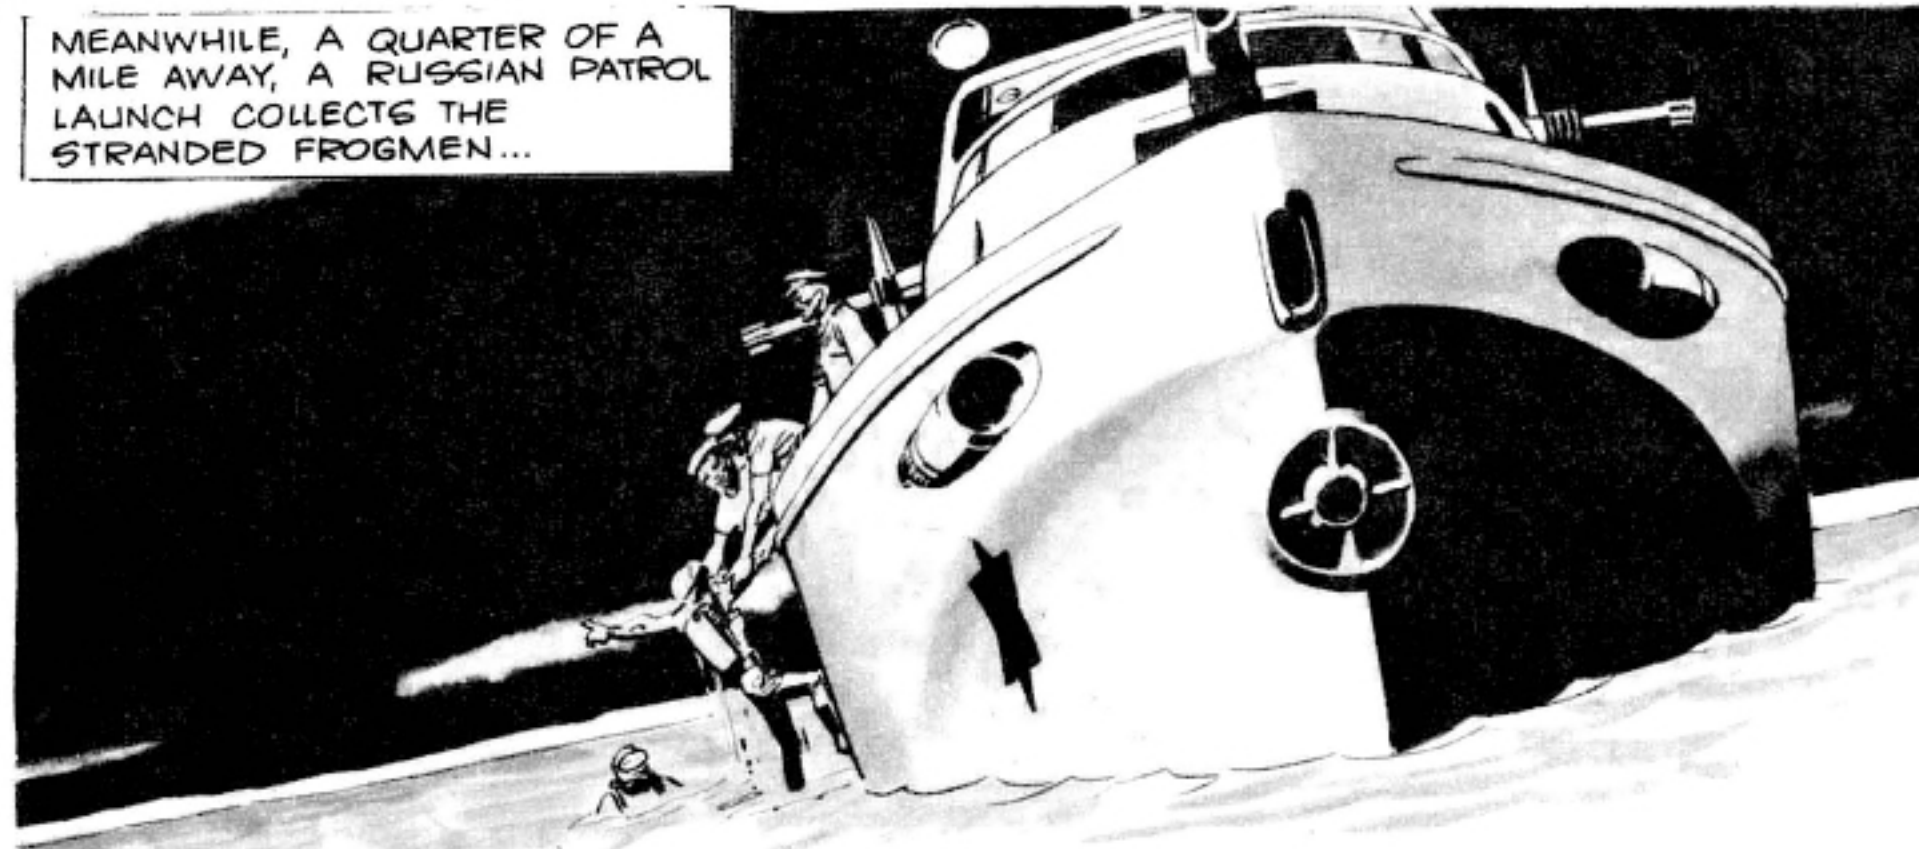

WORKING TO JOE'S SPECIFICATIONS, MAC HAS FITTED THE DINGHY WITH A FEW EXTRAS...

The U.S. submarine Triton was the first vessel to travel round the world underwater

TWELVE TIMES THE LABORIOUS JOURNEY IS MADE...

MEANWHILE, A QUARTER OF A MILE AWAY, A RUSSIAN PATROL LAUNCH COLLECTS THE STRANDED FROGMEN...

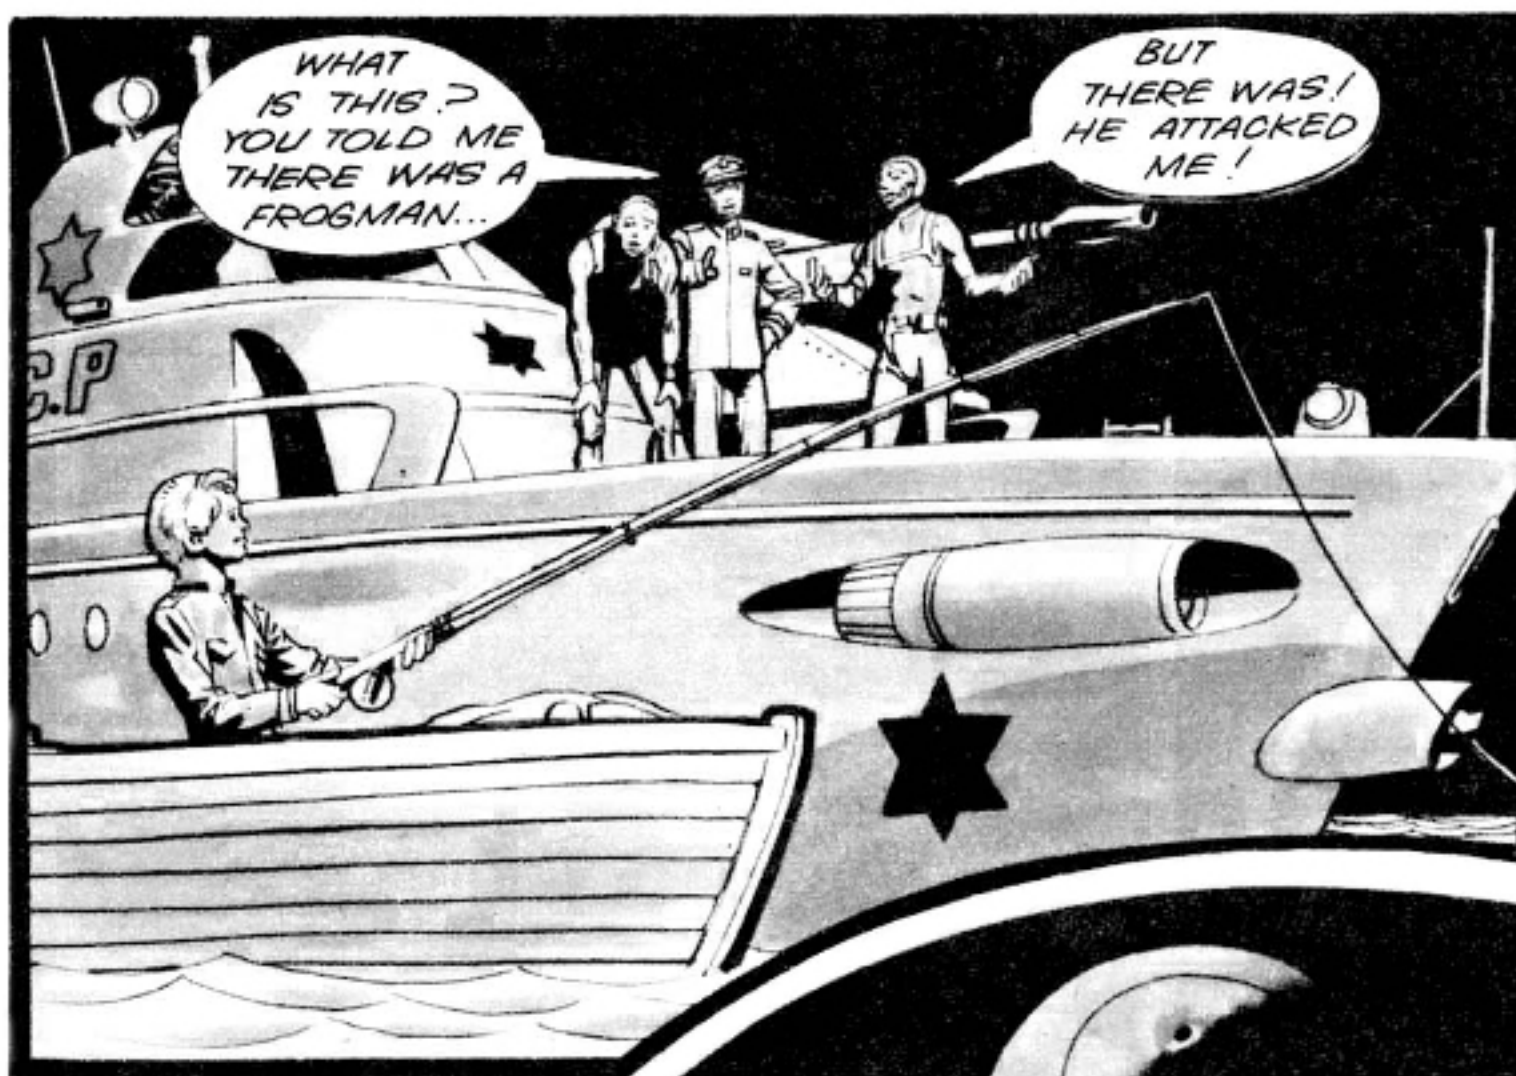

THE LAST MISSILE IS CLAMPED TO THE DINGHY, AND JOE SCRAMBLES ABOARD...

THERE'S A BOAT COMING... I'D BETTER GET BACK TO BEING PLAIN JOE MCCLAIN.

WITHIN SECONDS, SEARCHLIGHTS SWEEP THE AREA...

WHAT IS THIS? YOU TOLD ME THERE WAS A FROGMAN...

BUT THERE WAS! HE ATTACKED ME!

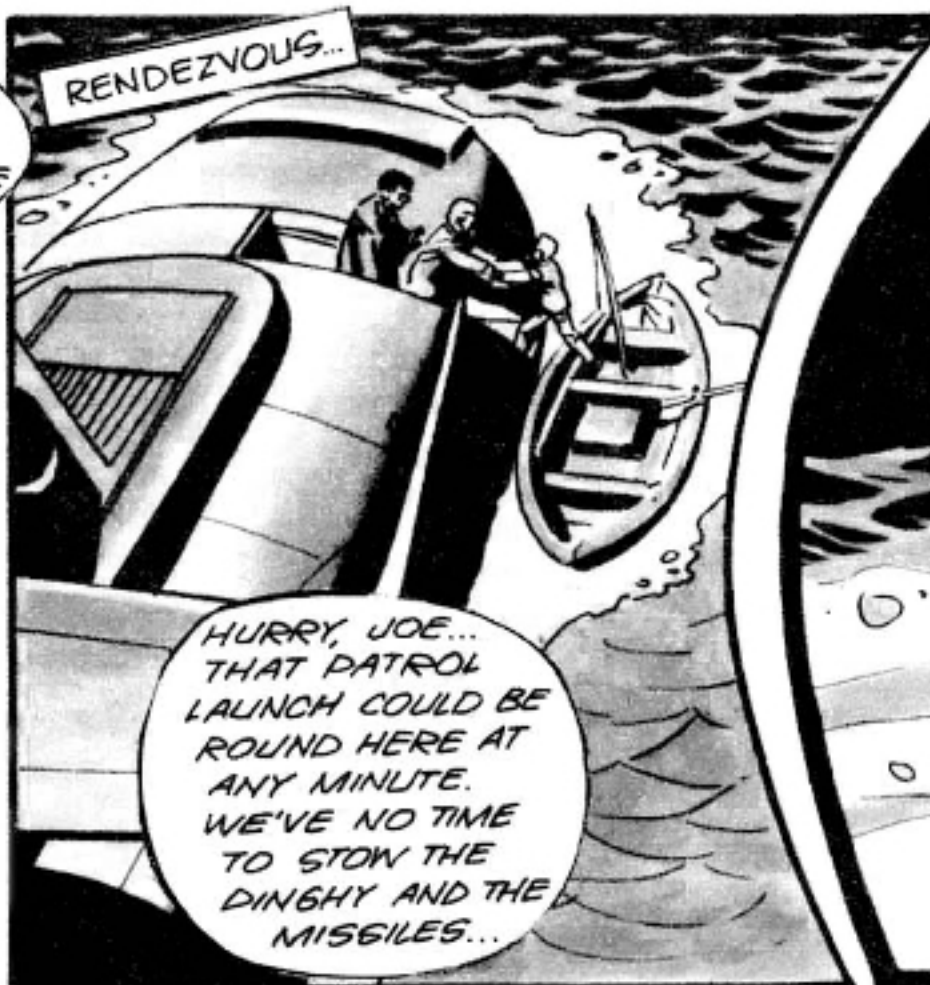

THIS IS A BOY... A FISHING BOY! GET OUT OF HERE, BOY... IT IS DANGEROUS. YOU SHOULD BE IN BED!

SMILING, JOE PULLS OFF INTO THE DARKNESS...

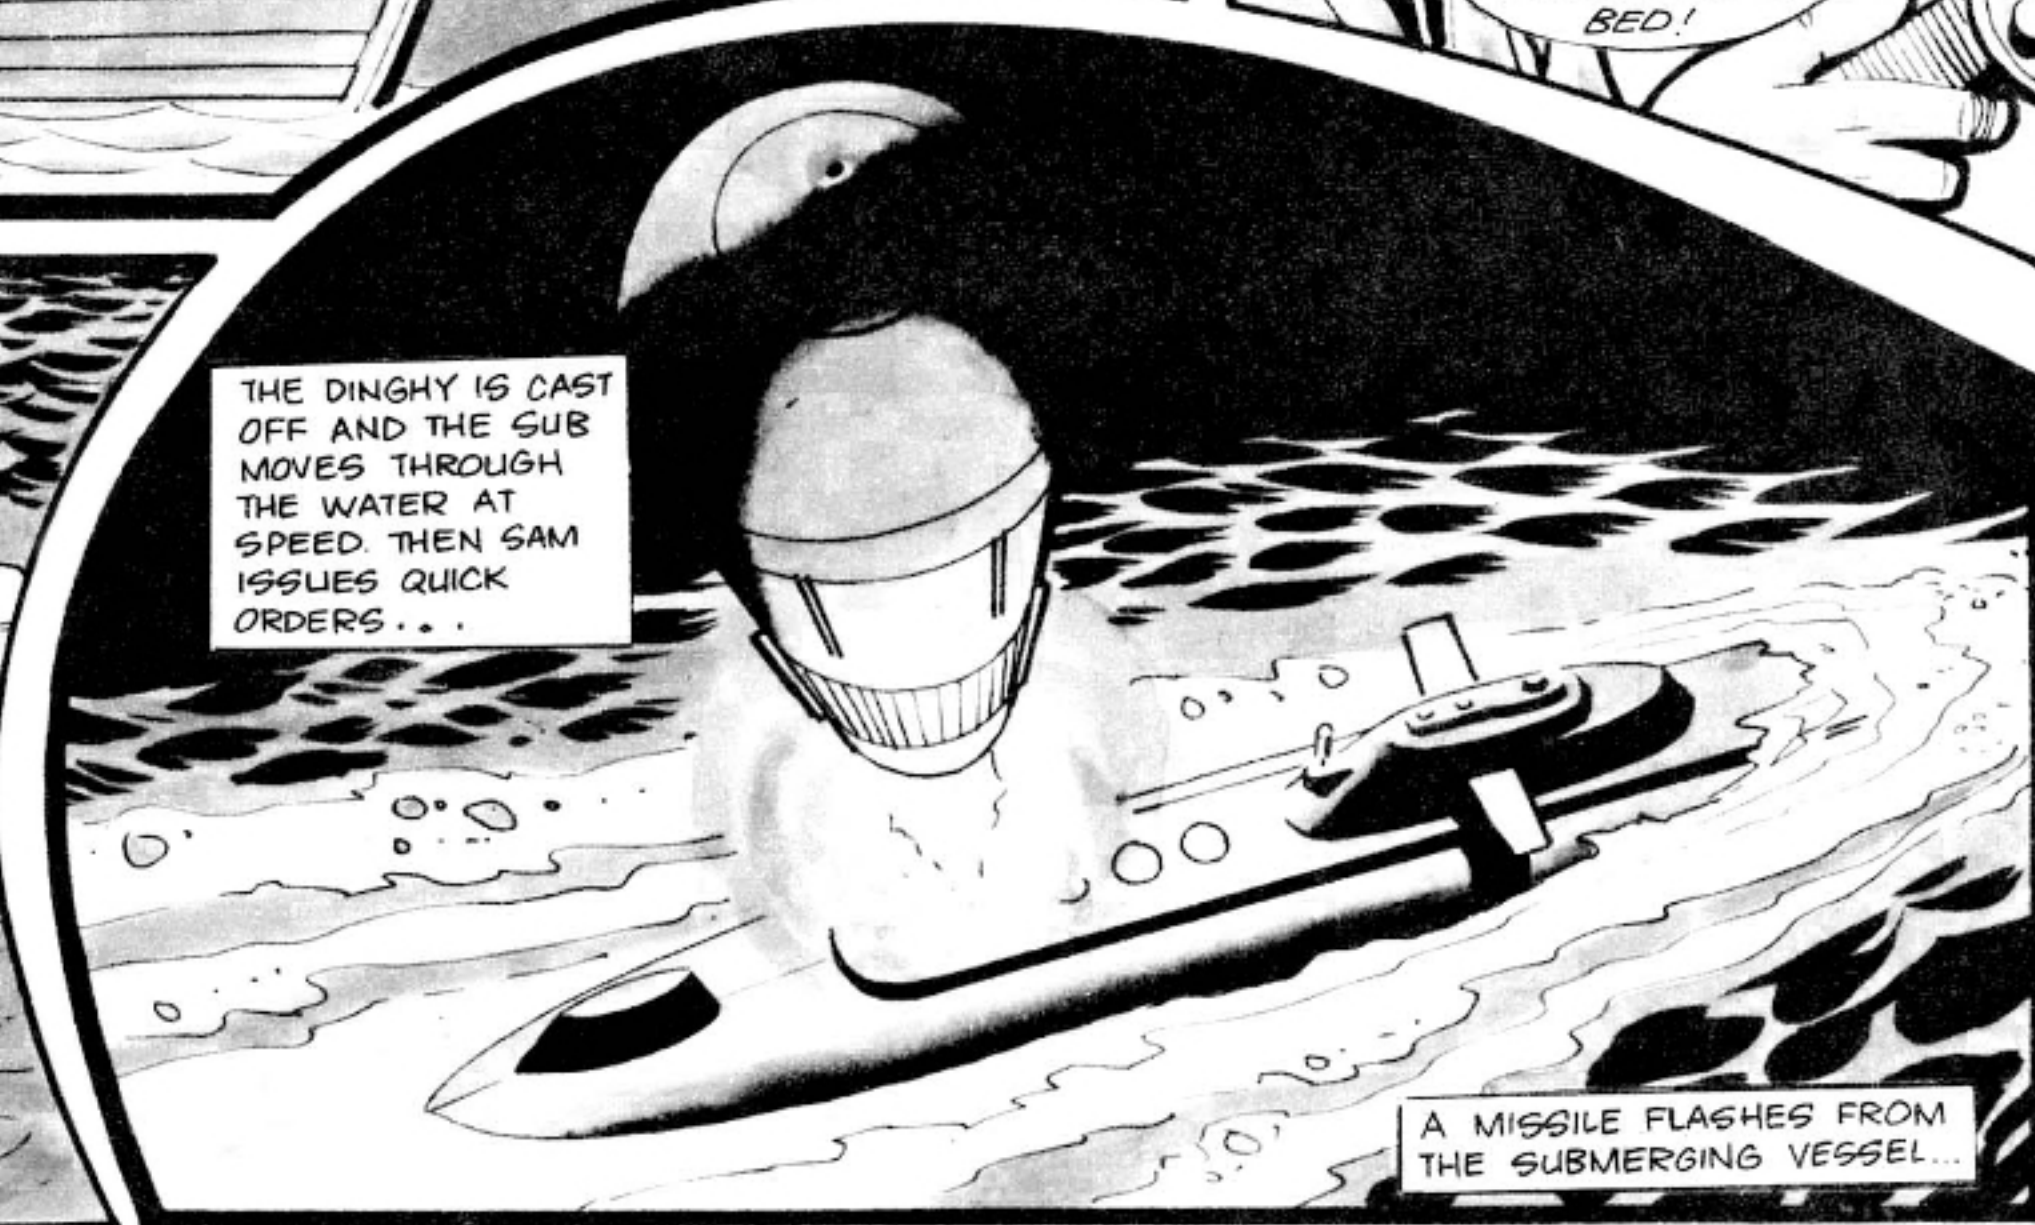

GO TO SAM LOOVER, LEAVING DANGER ZONE NOW.

OKAY, JOE... WE'LL COME TO MEET YOU

RENDEZVOUS...

HURRY, JOE... THAT PATROL LAUNCH COULD BE ROUND HERE AT ANY MINUTE. WE'VE NO TIME TO STOW THE DINGHY AND THE MISSILES...

THE DINGHY IS CAST OFF AND THE SUB MOVES THROUGH THE WATER AT SPEED. THEN SAM ISSUES QUICK ORDERS...

A MISSILE FLASHES FROM THE SUBMERGING VESSEL...

CONTACT!

BELOW THE SEA, JOE IS GIVEN A REWARDING CUP OF HOT CHOCOLATE...

WELL DONE, JOE... YOU MADE IT.

DID YOU HAVE ANY TROUBLE, SON?

NOT REALLY DAD... BUT...

... THIS ONE PUT UP QUITE A FIGHT!

Next week: Joe 90 becomes a crack infiltrator!

The Story of Space Travel

No. 1. EARLY DAYS

It is generally believed that the first rockets were developed as weapons of war by the Chinese and these missiles were probably some form of fire arrow, but the rockets which apply to space travel were first seriously suggested by a Russian in 1903.

Writing in a science journal, Konstantin Edouardovitch Tsiolkovskii put forward a thesis of propelling an object in the vacuum of space.

1957. Russia

It was not until September 1932 that Russia gave official recognition to their great scientist's theories and the old man was seventy-six by then.

But on October 7th, 1957, the occasion of Tsiolkovskii's birth centenary, Russia made up for their earlier mistakes by issuing a special commemorative stamp depicting the scientist's portrait.

1963.
Poland

In 1963, Poland included Tsiolkovskii's rocket and his scientific formula on the lowest value of a set of stamps noting Space Conquests.

An American scientist was not far behind the Russian in producing enough ideas to show that space travel by rocket was feasible, for in 1926, Dr. R. H. Goddard 1948.

United States

TOLD IN STAMPS

A series of eighteen

fired the first liquid fuel rocket.

After the Second World War, both Russia and the States produced large rockets capable of carrying payloads into space. Many test centres were set up in both countries but it was left to the Americans to show on a stamp issued in 1948, a rocket being tested at El Paso, Texas.

That early stage U.S. rocket was probably nearer the ancient rockets of China to the fantastic complex of gantry and hardware of the French Daimler Rocket.

FOR AN ANSWER, TREMAYNE PROJECTS A FILM...

NEMESIS . . .

. . . is an organisation set up by the nations of the world to combat any situation that could result in international tension or tip the delicately poised balance of power. Based in Geneva, Switzerland, the top secret department is small but powerful, supported by all countries and answerable to none as it fights a relentless war in the pursuit of right, justice and reason. In charge of the agency is the man known only as Tremayne. He was responsible for establishing Nemesis. His first job was to sift through the top security agencies and select a handful of the best and most able of the world's spies. Amongst the chosen few were two men and a woman who were to become the Champions.

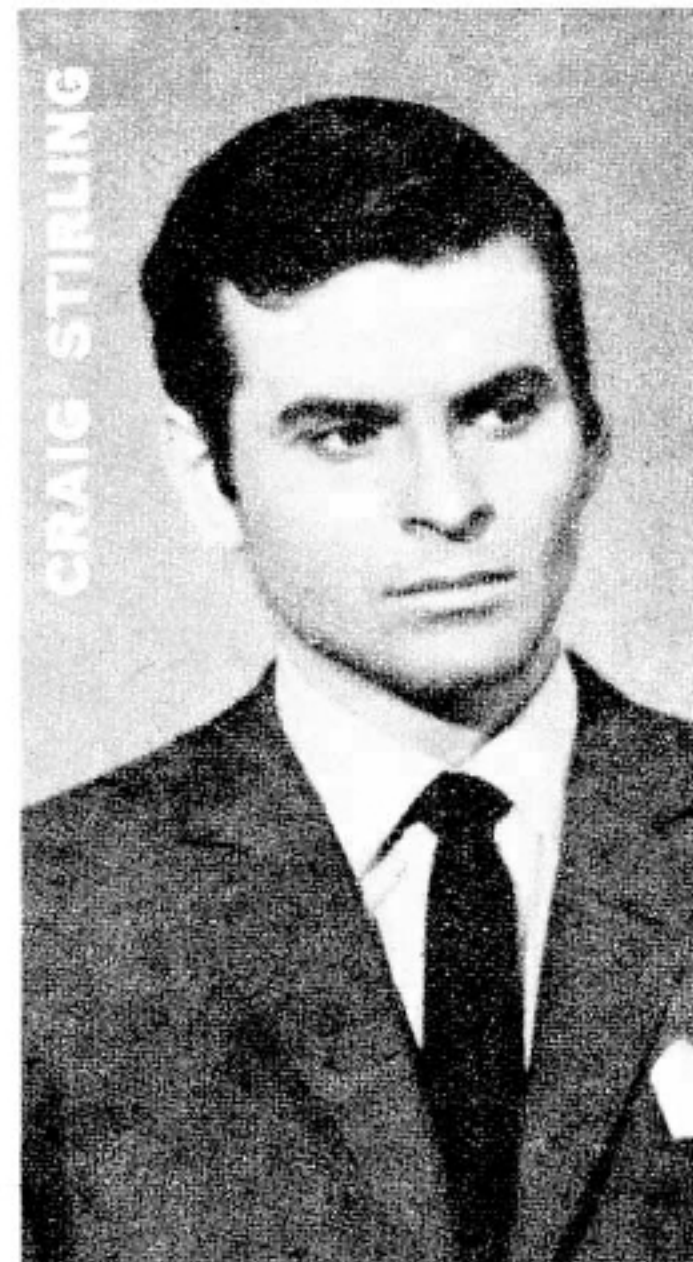

TREMAINE

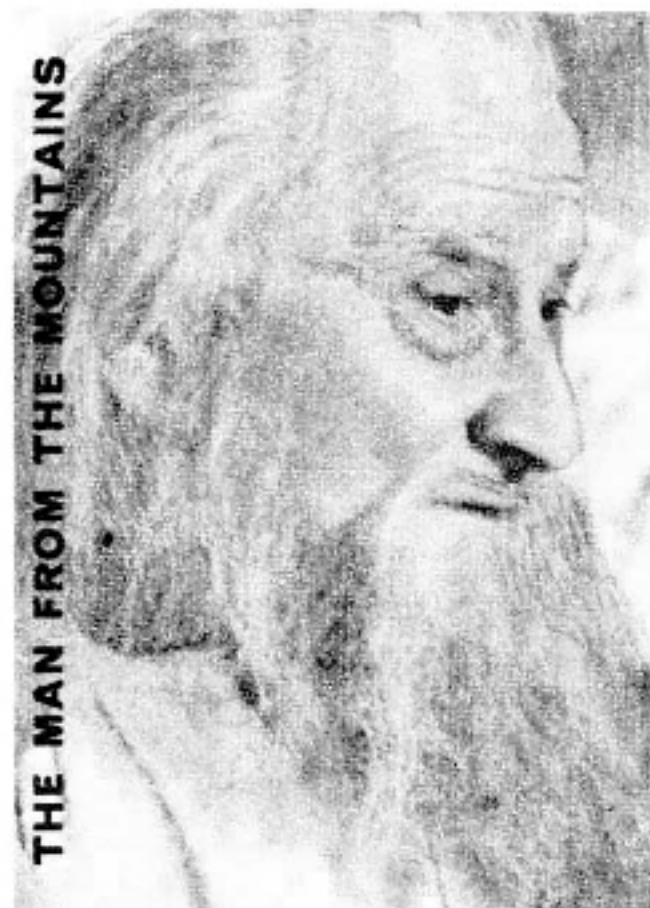

RICHARD BARRETT

SHARRON MACREADY

CRAIG STIRLING

THE MAN FROM THE MOUNTAINS

THE CHAMPIONS

Their names are Sharron Macready, Craig Stirling and Richard Barrett. The strange story of how they became 'The Champions' began when they were returning from a mission in the Far East. They were escaping in an aircraft over the mountains of Tibet when enemy gunfire forced them to crash-land in a remote snow-covered valley. They should have died in that terrible crash, but strange rescuers came to mend their bodies. Led by an old man in robes, the mountain people operated on the agents, giving them super powers . . . their physical and mental abilities were sharpened to the maximum, and their sense of sight, smell and hearing were developed to an extraordinary pitch. Apart from this, they were given a sensitive telepathic communication. All these things have made Sharron, Craig and Richard Champions—a secret held between them and the strange people of Tibet. A secret which means that together or alone, these three Nemesis agents are a formidable force in the constant war against crime, and the search for world peace.

THEIR DEDUCTIONS ARE ENOUGH TO GET A LEAD, BUT BY THE TIME THEY REACH THE AREA OF A DISUSED OBSERVATORY, FIVE PRECIOUS HOURS HAVE ELAPSED...

IF THERE IS ANYONE UP THERE, HE'LL HAVE NO TROUBLE SEEING OUR APPROACH.

UNLESS I GO UP THE HARD WAY... YOU TWO USE THE CABLE CAR. I'LL MEET YOU UP THERE.

SHARRON AND CRAIG SWAY GENTLY UP THE MOUNTAIN. THEN SUDDENLY...

KEEP DOWN. WE'VE FOUND OUR CRANK!

AND HE CAN PICK US OFF AT HIS LEISURE. WE'LL NEVER GET OFF THIS CAR...

THE BULLETS KICK THE ROUGH ROCK BEHIND HIM AND SHARRON TAKES HER CHANCES...

RICHARD'S PROGRESS IS SLOWER, BUT NOT MUCH!

BUT THE STRONG MOUNTAIN BREEZE HAS DEADENED THEIR ACUTE SENSE OF HEARING...

THE CAR SHUDDERS TO A HALT AT THE DESERTED PLATFORM...

WHAT NOW? ONE FOOT OUTSIDE THIS CAR AND I'LL BE SHOT OFF

WELL, LET'S TRY FLYING!

THE DISTANCE... THE AUTOMATIC RIFLE... THEY ARE TOO MUCH EVEN FOR THE CHAMPIONS...

SO YOU FOUND ME... BUT YOU ARE TOO LATE. THE ROCKETS ARE ON THEIR WAY.

MOVE UP TO THE OBSERVATORY... SLOWLY!

Before Hillary's success, 11 men died in attempts to climb Mount Everest

THE STRANGE POWER OF INTUITION POSSESSED BY THE CHAMPIONS TELLS RICHARD THAT HIS COMPANIONS ARE IN DANGER...

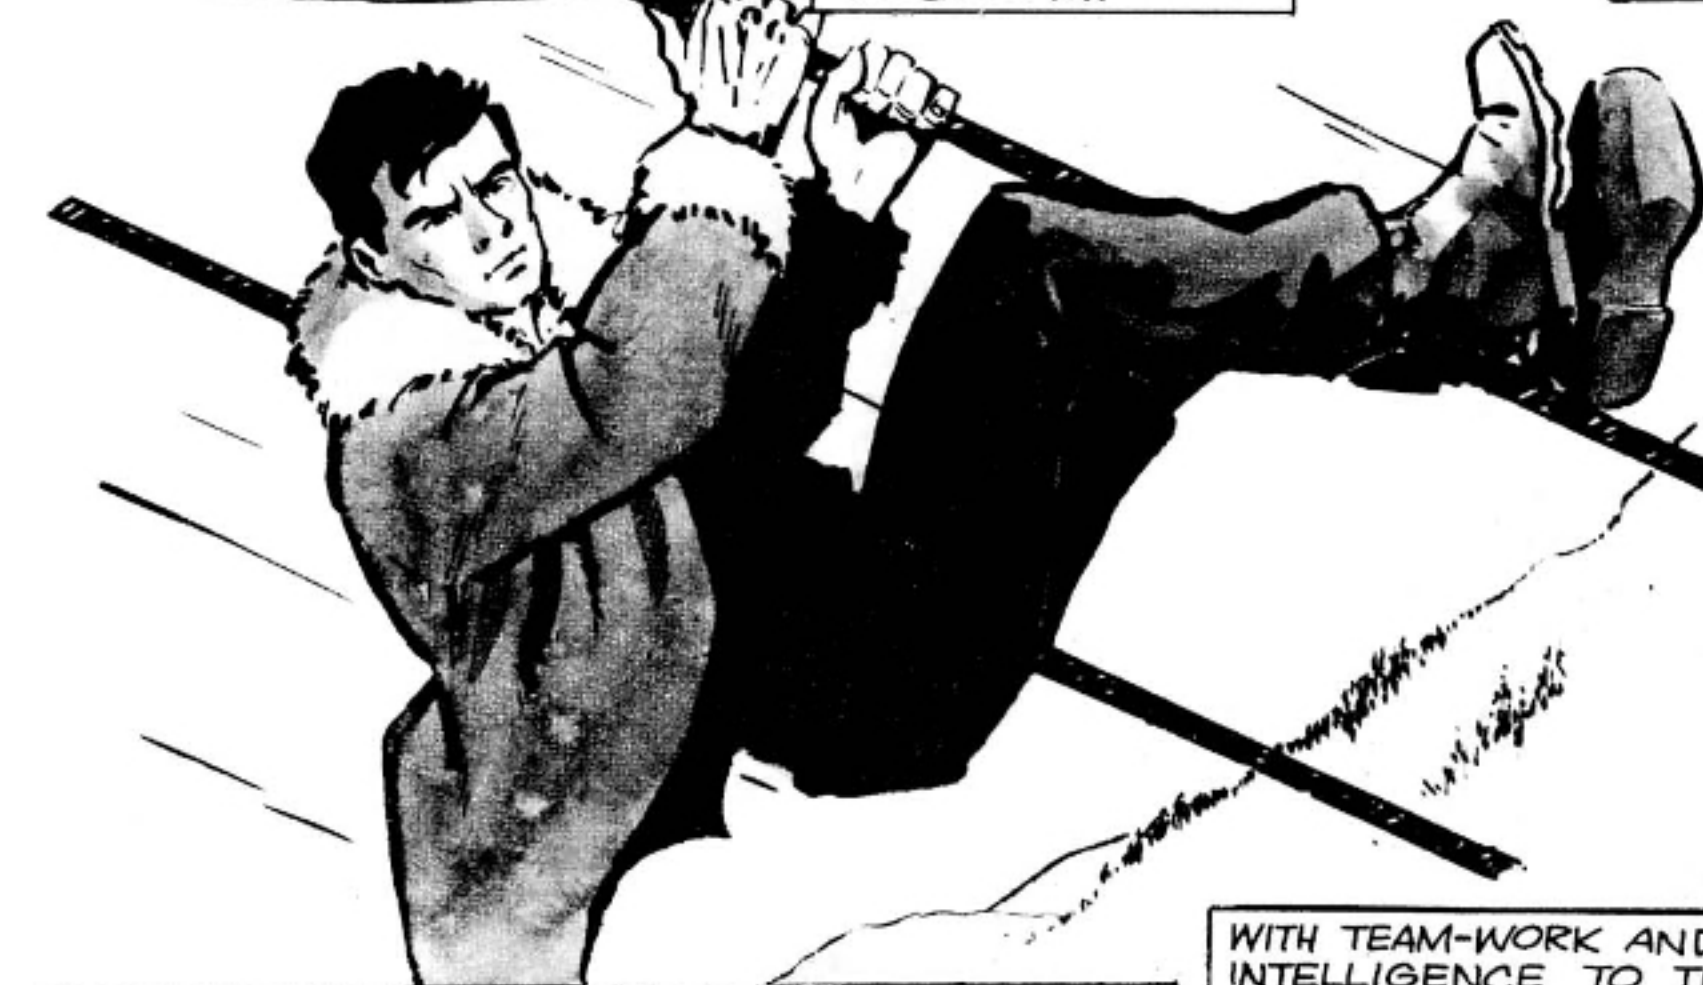

CRAIG HEARS RICHARD'S VOICE... BUT THE GUNMAN CANNOT...

CRAIG'S WORDS ARE ENOUGH TO AQUAINT RICHARD WITH CANTOR'S POSITION. HE CRASHES IN...

THEY BRING CANTOR ROUND...

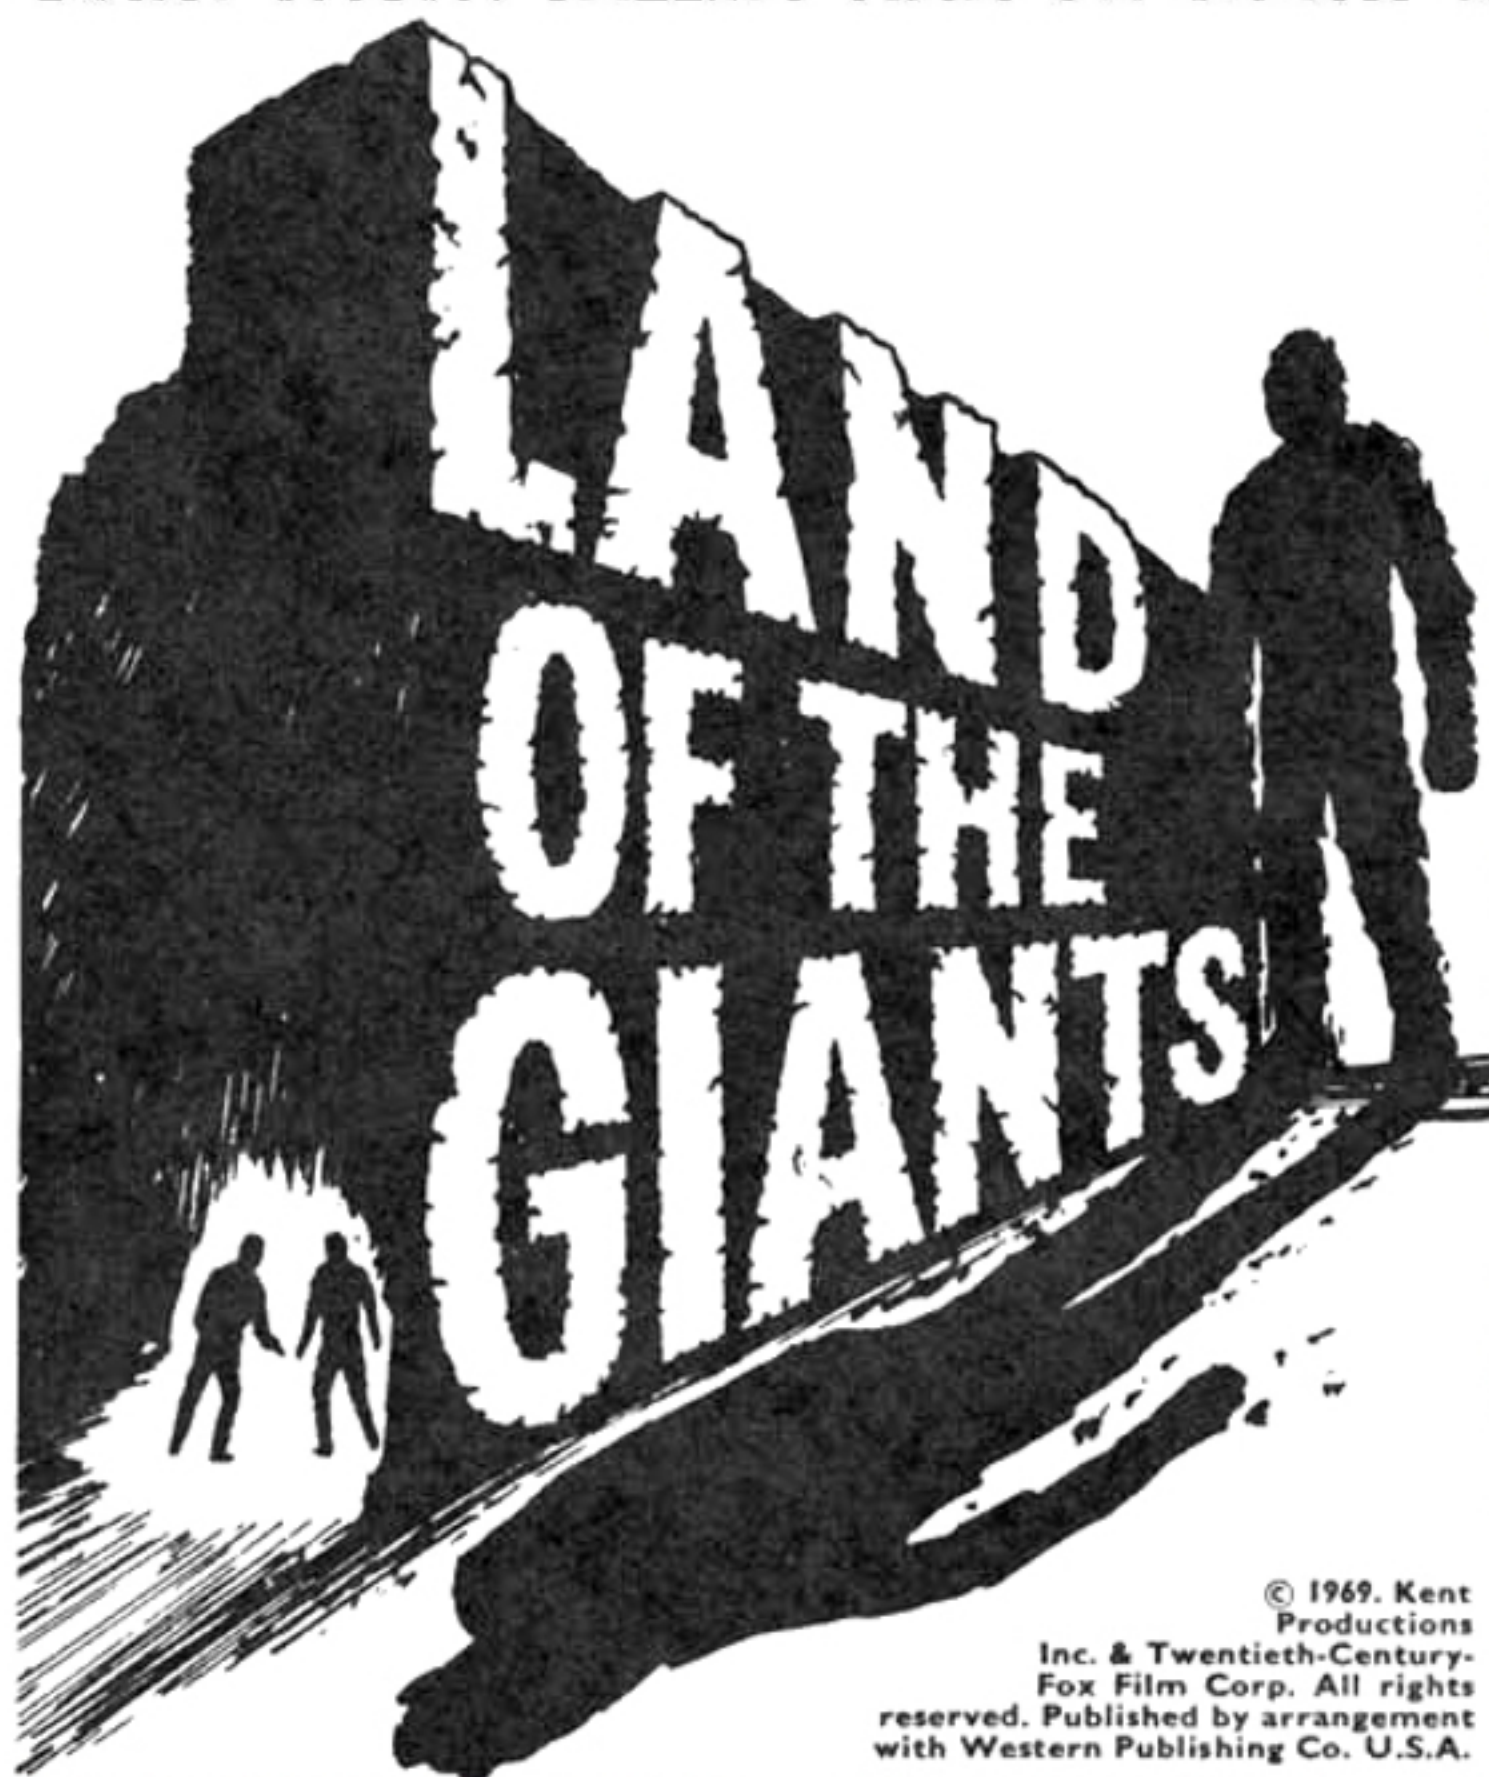

WITH TEAM-WORK AND THEIR SUPER INTELLIGENCE TO THANK, THE CHAMPIONS BEAT THE SYSTEMS...

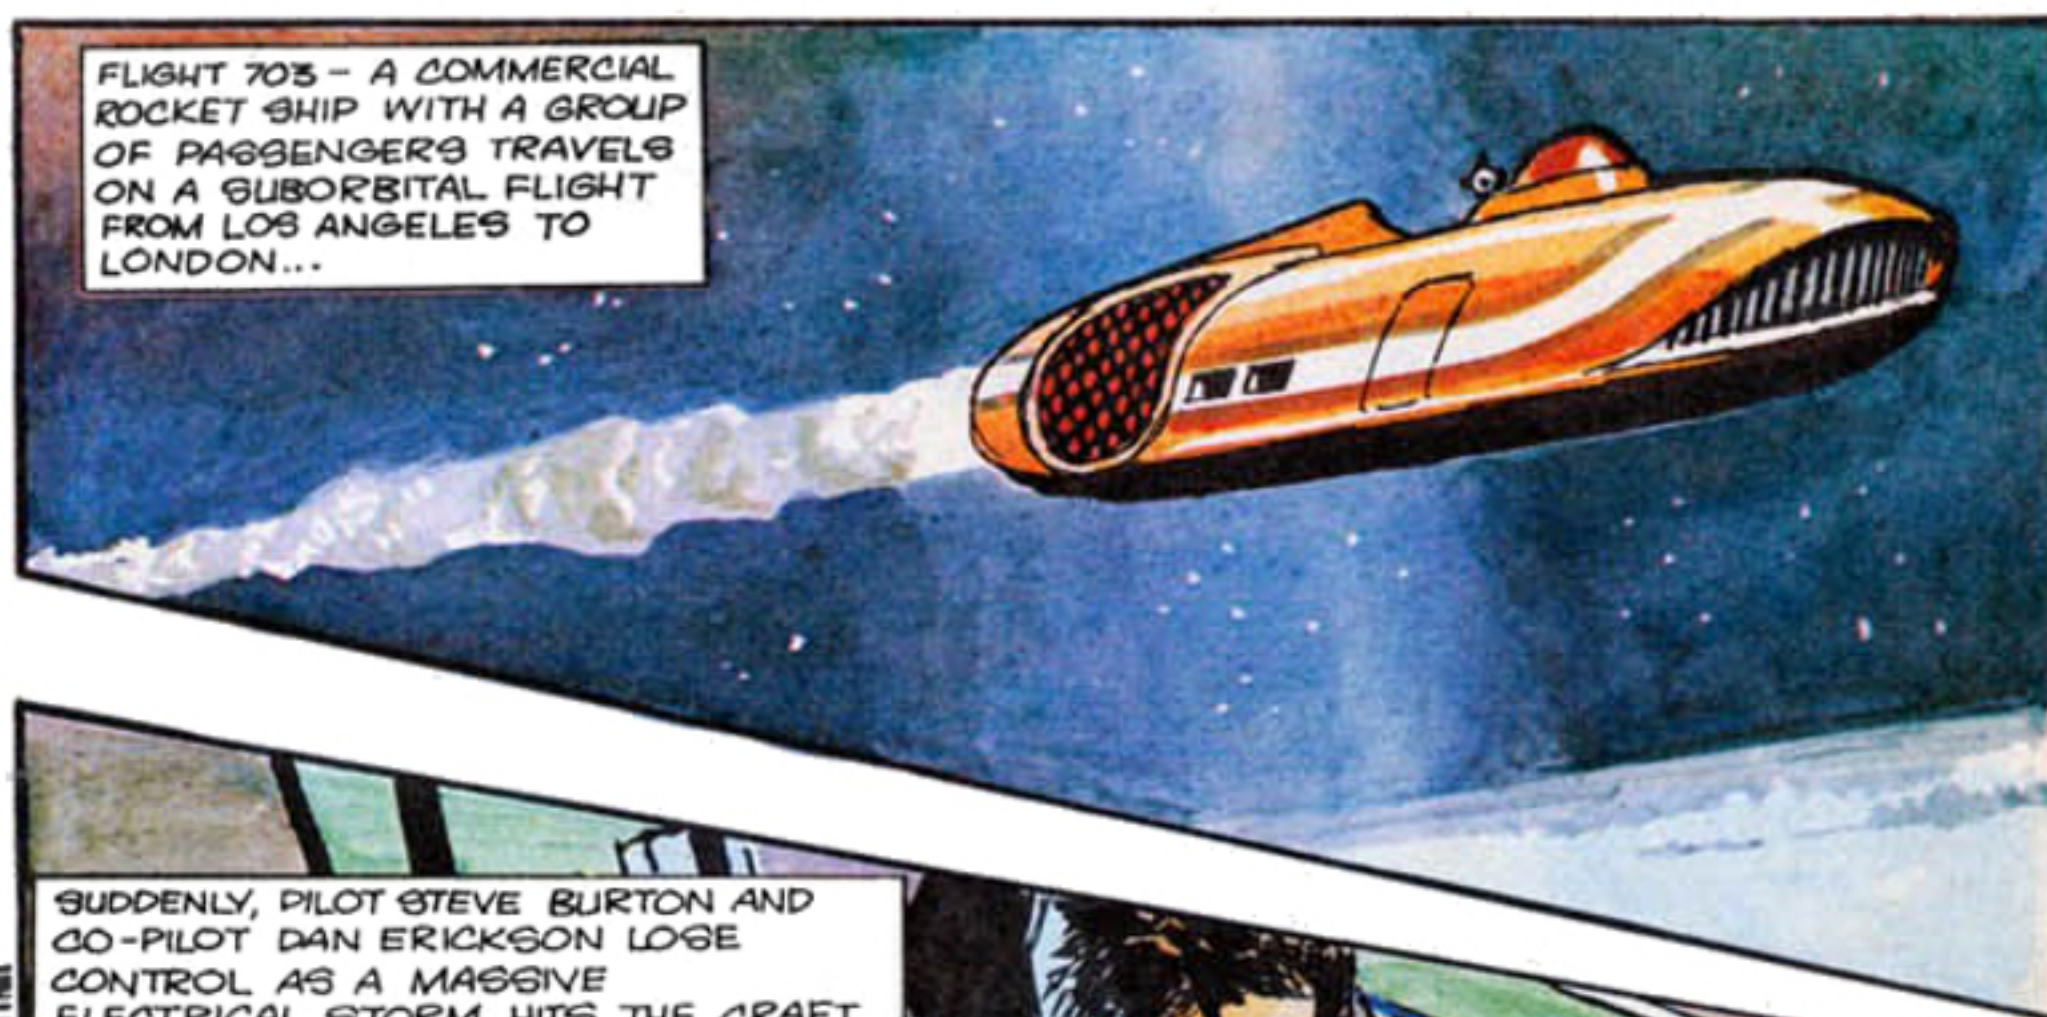

THE WIND BUFFETING THEIR FACES, THE CHAMPIONS GAZE DOWN THE MOUNTAIN...

IT'S NO GOOD, STEVE... WE CAN'T HOLD HER!

THE SHIP IS BOMBARDED BY TINY PARTICLES AND THE PASSENGERS GRIT THEIR TEETH AGAINST THE TURBULENCE. THEIR NAMES ARE...
